

Christopher Simon, Esquire

Christopher Simon is an attorney and founding member of Cross & Simon, LLC, a Delaware law firm, where he focuses his practice in corporate bankruptcy law and commercial litigation. He graduated from Washington & Lee University in Lexington, Virginia in 1992 with a Bachelor of Arts degree and received his Juris Doctorate from Widener University School of Law in Wilmington, Delaware. At Widener, he served on the Delaware Journal of Corporate Law. Before beginning his legal career, Mr. Simon worked as a journalist. His articles have appeared in The News Journal, The Baltimore Sun and the Wall Street Journal, where he worked as an intern staff reporter.

Mr. Simon is a past member of the Board of Trustees for Christ Church Episcopal Preschool and a volunteer guardian ad litem for the Office of the Child Advocate. From 2002 to 2011, he served as a Commissioner for the Wilmington Housing Authority. He is a member of the Delaware State Bar Association, the Delaware Trial Lawyers Association, the American Bankruptcy Institute, and the American Bar Association. Mr. Simon's term expires in April 2020.